IRISH TENOR RONAN TYNAN

SATURDAY, MARCH 8, 2014

CAPE MAY CONVENTION HALL | CAPE MAY, NJ

CAPE MAY, NJ – The City of Cape May today announced that Irish tenor, recording artist, and paralympian Ronan Tynan will be making a stop at Cape May Convention Hall on Saturday, March 8 at 8 p.m.

Tickets for Ronan Tynan are $35 and be purchased at the Cape May Convention Hall Box Office, at www.discovercapemaynj.com or by calling (855) 708-9699 or (609) 884-9563. Applicable fees may apply.

Irish Tenor Ronan Tynan moves audiences like few others can. The New York Times called him "the closest thing this country has to an official Meistersinger." Ronan won both the John McCormack Cup for Tenor Voice and the BBC talent show Go For It less than one year after beginning the study of voice. The following year, he won the International Operatic Singing Competition in Maumarde, France.

His debut solo album, My Life Belongs to You, was released in 1998 and jumped straight into the charts at number five and was certified gold. Introduced to international audiences as a member of the Irish Tenors, Tynan returned to a solo career in 2005 with his self-titled album. Ronan debuted #2 on Billboard's Classical Crossover Chart and was the 8th best-selling classical crossover album of 2005. It also reached #2 on the World Album Chart and peaked at #9 on the Contemporary Christian Chart.

A double amputee, Tynan has amassed eighteen gold medals and fourteen world records between 1981 and 1984. He still holds nine world records.
